GOD SAVE OUR PRESIDENT.

A NATIONAL SONG.

BY FRANCIS DE HAES JANVIER.

I.

All hail! Unfurl the stripes and stars!
The banner of the free!
Ten times ten thousand patriots greet
The shrine of Liberty!
Come, with one heart, one hope, one aim,
An undivided band,
To elevate, with solemn rites,
The ruler of our land!

II.

Not to invest a potentate
With robes of majesty—
Not to confer a kingly crown,
Nor bend a subject knee,
We bow beneath no sceptred sway—
Obey no royal nod—
Columbia's sons, erect and free,
Kneel only to their God!

III.

Our ruler boasts no titled rank,
No ancient princely line—
No legal right to sovereignty,
Ancestral and divine,
A patriot—at his country's call
Responding to her voice;
One of the people—he becomes
A sovereign by our choice!

IV.

And now, before the mighty pile
We've reared to Liberty,
He swears to cherish and defend
The charter of the free!
God of our country! Seal his oath
With thy supreme assent,
God save the Union of the States!
God save our President!

THE LOVER DISGUISED; OR, Love Works Wonders.

A SKETCH FROM LIFE.

My friend Tom has a natural affection for dirt, or rather dirt has a natural affection for Tom. It is to him what gold was to Midas; whatever he touches turns to dirt. No matter how white the cravat—no matter how immaculate the vest, the moment that it comes within the sphere of Tom's influence, its whiteness is gone—it is immaculate no longer. Dogs, sweeps and lamplighters never pass him without leaving upon his dress unequivocal marks of their presence. Once and only once, I saw him cross the street without encountering the wheels of a carriage. I opened my mouth to congratulate him, and before I could utter one word, it was filled with mud. The careless blockhead lay at my feet, full length in the gutter. At my earnest solicitation, he purchased a suit of precisely mud color. It was a capital idea. He crossed the street three times: he walked half a mile, and returned, in appearance, at least, unscathed. The thing was unprecedented. True, he was welcomed by the affectionate caresses of a dog that had been enjoying the coolness of a neighboring horse-pond; true, he received a shower bath from the wheels of an omnibus. But, to plaster mud on Tom's new coat, was to "gild refined gold—to paint the lily." "Tom will be a neat man yet," I said, as I witnessed the success of my plan.

In about a half an hour it was my fate to meet a gentleman with seven stripes of green paint on his back; it was my friend Tom; he had been leaning on some newly painted window-blinds.

His shoe black declares that "he can't see no use in blacking his boots when they never remain black;" and his washer-woman, with a very proper regard for her own reputation, has been compelled to discard him, not from any ill-will, but, as she declared with uplifted hands, "if any one should ask me if I washed Mr. Smith's clothes, what could I tell them?" But there were very few things in this world with which Tom could have more easily dispensed than the service of his washerwoman.

Having no other amusement, one morning, I strolled over to Tom's rooms. As I ascended the stairs, I heard his voice in a very decided tone, "But it must be done and so there is an end to it."

"Really," was the reply, "anything within the limit of possibility, but to make a coat in ten hours—I will promise anything in the world, but I really fear I shall be unable to perform.

"If double your price would be any object," —

"Certainly sir, if you insist upon it: certainly. I will put every man in my shop upon it; it shall be done in time. Good morning, sir."

The door opened and a fellow with shears and measures passed out. What could Tom be doing with a tailor?

"Just the man I wanted to see," he exclaimed. "I require your advice upon a very important affair: which of these cravats do you think most becoming?" and he spread before me some half dozen, of every hue and fashion.

"Now, what in the name of all that is wonderful, does this mean, Tom? A fancy ball, is it? You have chosen an excellent disguise; your nearest friends will never know you.—But you cannot support the character; if you had taken that of a chimney sweep, now; but that would have been too natural. Tell me truly, Tom, what does all this mean?"

"Why the fact is, Frank," passing a hand through his hair, redolent of macassar, "I have concluded—I think I shall be a little more neat in future. You doubtless remember the good advice you gave me some time since; it has had an excellent effect, I assure you."

Now, it so happened, that of all the good advice I had ever given Tom, this was the very first instance in which he had seen fit to follow it. So I could not attribute the metamorphosis of my friend to my eloquence. Who but a woman ever changed a sloven to a fop?

"Pray, where are you going this evening," I continued, "that you must have a new coat so suddenly?"

"Going? nowhere in particular. I had, indeed, some idea of calling on my old friend, Mr. Murray; no harm in that, I hope?"

Conviction began to flash upon me.

"Your old friend, Mr. Murray; and his young niece, Miss Julia, has no share in your visit, I suppose? I heard that she arrived in town last night?"

"Now, upon my word, Frank, you mistake me entirely. I did not know that she was in town last night—when I—that is, when I—I did not know anything about it."

"And so you were there last night, too!—Really this is getting along bravely."

"Why, the fact is, Frank, you must know everything. I called last evening to see Murray on some business, about that real estate you know. I had no idea of meeting a woman there, more than a boa-constrictor—my beard was three days old—my collar ditto—and the rest of my dress in excellent keeping. I became engaged in conversation, and somehow or other, I forgot all about the real estate."

"And so you are going again to-night—and that is the secret of your new coat?"

"By no means; I wanted a new coat, and tailors are so long, you know. Do you think blue will become me? Blue is her favorite—that is—I mean blue"——

"Oh, go on—don't stammer—blue is her favorite color, is it?"

"The fact is, Frank—take another glass of this wine—the fact is—good wine, isn't it? been two voyages to the Indies—the fact is, I Try some of that sherry. What are the symptoms, Frank—a queer feeling about the heart, and something that drives the blood through one like lightning?"

"Exactly! I believe I have seen Julia—short and chubby, isn't she—with red hair, and a little squint eyed?

"Frank, I never did knock you down, though I have been tempted to do so a great many times; but if you don't stop that nonsense, I will."

"Quite valiant in defence of your lady-love. Well, Tom, I will confess that she is a lovely girl, and to-morrow I will come and learn your success. So good morning."

"Well, Tom, what success?"

"Would you believe it! she did not recognize me."

"Not recognize you?"

"No. You know what a quiz that Murray is. As soon as he saw me enter, dressed in such a style, he came up, shook hands with me, and, without giving me a chance to say one word, introduced me to Julia, as Mr. Frederick Somebody. And would you believe it! the little witch did not know me. I think I should not forget her so easily. Nor was that all. Murray said something about the fellow who called there the previous evening—a country cousin, he said, rich enough, but an incorrigible sloven. And Julia said, he dressed like a barbarian—just think of that, Frank—a barbarian! She shall pay for that yet. Such eyes—and she steps like a queen. Well, Frank, a clean collar does make a vast difference in a man's appearance. Lovely as Hebe herself. Terrible difference clean linen makes."

The last time I saw Tom he was scolding his eldest son for coming into the drawing-room with muddy boots.

A JAPANESE TOWN.

The new town of Simoda was being rebuilt when we were there, says a traveller. The ruins of a Japanese city are by no means imposing; wood, thatch, and a small modicum of bricks constituting the materials generally employed in a country where a man may naturally expect to rebuild his house more than once in a lifetime. The spick and span new appearance of whole streets told its own tale; and the appearance of a formidable stone-faced breakwater, erected some feet above high-water mark, and full thirty feet high, cutting off the pretty vale in which the town was situated from the waters of Simoda Bay, clearly showing in what direction the greatest danger was anticipated, and whence they had suffered most during the last dreadful visitation. Yet there was nothing in the appearance of the good folks of Simoda to lead one to suppose they fretted much about earthquakes, rollers from the sea, or the Vries volcano. Every one looked as happy and free from care as any people could do. The men welcomed us with a good-natured smile, the women, young or old, seemed as curious to look at us as we were to look at them. Everybody appeared well to do—not a beggar was visible; possibly the earthquake had swept them off.

☞It is a pretty saying of an old writer, that men, like books, begin and end with blank leaves—infancy and senility.

A FALSE ALARM.

A Washington paper gives the following account of a domestic "what-d'ye-call it," which occurred in that city the other day. The old proverb is, that "it never rains but it pours." The killing of Key seems to have crazed the silly pates of several very romantic married women in this metropolis. A few days after the Sickles tragedy, a married lady living in the southern part of the city, or what is known as the island, informed her liege lord that she had been grossly insulted the previous evening, by Mr. B——, an acquaintance of the family. The incensed and outraged husband, with revolver in hand, rushed to the office of the supposed offender, and demanded satisfaction.

"Satisfaction for what?" asked the astonished Mr. B.

"For having insulted my wife, sir, last evening," responded the excited individual.

"Pray, sir, who dares charge me with ever having insulted your wife, by look, word, or action?" again inquired Mr. B.

"The lady herself, sir, makes the charge," promptly rejoined the husband.

"With your permission, sir, I would be pleased to face my accuser, and hear her make the charge in my presence," mildly remarked the imperturbable Mr. B.

"You shall be gratified, sir; walk with me," added the still exasperated husband, at the same time returning his six-shooter to his pocket.

But before giving the closing scene, it may be well to inform the reader of the facts. On the evening previous, Mr. B. had casually called at the house of a friend, and there found the lady in question, without an escort. At a late hour she prepared to return home, and Mr. B. kindly tendered his services to see her safe to her door. The streets on the island are not highly improved, and on the night in question, was very muddy. At one point the walk was quite intercepted by a mud-hole, over which the lady and gentleman were compelled to pass. A knight of old would probably have thrown down his mantle, over which the fair lady might have walked; but our hero having no such appendage, proposed a spring, by which his companion, with the assistance of his hand, cleared the mud at a single bound.

Without further annoyance, they reached the lady's residence in safety.

The excited husband now ushered Mr. B. into his parlor, and rang for his insulted wife, who promptly reported herself. Mr. B. looking the lady full in the face, asked:

"Madam, have I ever, in word, look or deed, offered you the slightest indignity or insult in

A breathless pause followed. The lady, after some hesitation, falteringly answered:

"I thought you squeezed my hand slightly, in helping me over the mud-hole last night."

The revolver dropped, and after due apology to Mr. B., the mortified husband turned to his romantic spouse and administered a rebuke, to avoid the witnessing of which Mr. B. hastily left the house and returned to his office, ruminating on the character of female women, with the sage conclusion, that at the present age of the world, it was not entirely "safe to beau other men's wives."

SWALLOWING A BULLET.

A Highland shepherd, while mumbling a small bullet between his teeth, unfortunately got it into the windpipe. He coughed incessantly for two hours, after which he had slight inconvenience, beyond a little occasional dry cough, till the middle of the following day, when he was attacked with shivering, headache, and deep pain in the right side of the chest. The shivering and headache ceased, but the pain continued, and he was extensively drowsy. On the evening of the third day he was seen by Dr. Macraf, who being satisfied of the lodgment of the bullet, "directed the man to be strapped securely to a common chair, that he might be easily suspended from the rafters of the roof with his head downward, in order that the chest might be conveniently shaken by a rapid succession of sudden smart jerks, and that the weight of the bullet might favor its escape from its seat in the lungs."—He was kept suspending as long as he could endure such an uncomfortable position, and then placed in the horizontal position for a few minutes to rest. When sufficiently recruited, he was hung up again. Upon being taken down the first time, he described the pain in his breast as moving nearer to the top of his chest, and during the third suspension he joyfully exclaimed—"Thanig-a, thanig!" ("It has come, it has come!" in the Gaelic language,) immediately after a smart shaking and a few convulsive, retching coughs, he spat the little bullet from his mouth.

FIGHT ON EQUAL TERMS.

In Georgia, Judge T., a celebrated duellist, who had lost his leg, and who was known to be a dead shot, challenged Colonel D., a gentleman of great humor. The friends tried to prevent the meeting, but to no effect. The parties met on the ground, when Colonel D., was asked if he was ready. "No," he replied.—"What are you waiting for, then?" inquired Judge T.'s second.—"Why, sir," said Colonel D., "I have sent my boy into the woods to hunt a bee gum to put my leg in, for I don't intend to give the judge any advantage over me. You see he has a wooden leg." The whole party roared with laughter, and the thing was so ridiculous that it broke up the fight. Colonel D., was afterwards told that it would sink his reputation. "Well," he replied, "it can't sink me lower than a bullet can."—"But," urged his friends, "the papers will be filled about you."—"Well," said he, "I would rather fill fifty papers than one coffin." No one ever troubled the Colonel after that.

☞Creditors have better memories than debtors.

MONEY VS HUSBANDS.

A correspondent of a Worcester paper relates this incident:

Just as the train was about starting for Greenfield, Friday morning, on the Vermont and Massachusetts Railroad, a sprightly little woman with a child, took a seat in the car near where I was sitting. The cars were beginning to move and the little woman looked anxiously through the end window of the rear car for her missing husband, who was in the depot attending to the purchase of tickets, &c.

The speed of the car increased and the woman looked more anxious. The husband now appears and commences to run. He gains on the cars at first, but they are too far ahead of him, and soon leave him behind, although he did run well for a season. It is now the wife's turn to try what she can do. In agony she implores the conductor that her husband is left, but he can't help that. "I am starting on a journey and can't get along without my husband."

"Then let him attend to his business next time," was the cold answer.

"But," says the woman, "I have no money with me."

The brakes were applied, and the cars brought to a stand still, and the panting husband enters the cars to the delight of all the passengers, especially of his wife. Moral — money will stop a train of cars much quicker than husbands.

A BOLD LEAP.

On a recent occasion, Louis Napoleon, while reviewing troops on the Champ de Mars, noticed some disorder at a distant part of the field. Restless and annoyed, instead of dispatching an officer, he suddenly started off at full gallop to the scene of difficulty. The centre of the field was clear from troops, but a carriage stood in an open space—a light, open phaeton, with its top thrown back—and this carriage was directly across the line of the Emperor's direction. So sudden had his movements been that few for a moment had observed his leaving his position in the field, but now he was dashing as fast as the horse could carry him across the open space. Arriving at the obstacle he toop a flying leap clear over the carriage, and continuing his still rapid pace to the scene of commotion, soon returned and assumed his position at the head of the field, while the air rang with acclamations of delight at the daring and success of his exploit.

KNOW NOTHING CONSISTENCY.

Democratic ranks, the Know-Nothing journals of this city could find no language sufficiently foul to express their abhorrence of his want of principle. At the time Col. Forney was a candidate for the Clerkship of the House of Representatives, no effort was spared to blacken his character, and hold him up in the most odious light. Now, when the said Col. Forney has proved a traitor to his friends, and falsified all his former professions—when he has shown that self-aggrandizement, and not principle, controls his action—we find these same Know Nothing journals quoting Mr. Forney as most reliable authority, and holding him up as a marvellous proper man. This is, in truth, Know Nothing Opposition honesty and consistency. No man is worthy of their confidence until he has proved a traitor to his principles, and forfeited the respect of all honest men.—Balt. Rep.

☞An honest farmer was invited to attend a party at a village squire's one evening, where there was music, both vocal and instrumental. On the following morning he met one of the guests, who said:

"Well, farmer, how did you enjoy yourself last night? Were not the quartettes excellent?"

"Why, really, sir, I can't say," said he, "for I din't taste 'em; but the pork chops were the finest I ever ate."

☞Mrs. B——desired Dr. Johnson to give his opinion of a new work she had just written, adding, that if ti would not do, she begged him to tell her, for she had other irons in the fire, and in case of its not being likely to succeed, she could bring out something else. "Then," said the doctor after having turned over a few leaves—"I advise you, madam, to put it where your other irons are."

ROLLING OFF A LOG.—An editor out West, being deserted by his printers, who were "on a strike," was compelled to turn into the office himself. In his next week's paper appeared a graphic account of the circumstance, composed by the editors "oWr fair jingeRs" concluding with the words —"Talq oj tHe sublime aiT of printinG; bleSs ouR soul? it,s as aAs£ as roLliuG ofj a loG."

☞A New Orleans District School Board has resolved that "the act of marriage on the part of a school-mistress shall be virtually considered a resignation of position as a teacher." This would seem to destroy a teacher's qualification: for how, as maidens, can they "Increase and multiply?"

☞A Lady called on a witty friend who was not at home, and finding the piano dusty, wrote upon it slattern. The next day they met and the lady said, "I called on you yesterday." "Yes, I saw your card on the piano."

☞Some one was telling an Irishman that some body had eaten ten saucers of ice cream; whereupon Pat shook his head.

"So you don't believe it?"

With a shrewd nod, Pat answered, "I belave in the crame, but not in the saucers."

MYNHEER Drinken of makes a distinction thus: "Too much whiskey is too much, but too much lager is shoost right."

CONFESSION OF MARION CROP.

We have procured a pamphlet, says the Philadelphia Argus, purporting to be the confession of Marion Crop, who was recently hung in Baltimore, for the murder of Officer Rigdon. This pamphlet is written by a Reverend gentleman who was the spiritual adviser of the condemned man, and is avouched for by him as being correct under oath. The developments made in it are of the most startling character; and show that the "Rip Raps" and Plug Uglies" of Baltimore are "clubs" which have made murder their past time, and in their hellish deeds have been upheld by high officials in that city. As soon as the confession was published, the Reverend gentleman who prepared it was compelled to fly from the city in disguise to save his life. So startling were its developments, that two of the most prominent publishing houses in Baltimore declined to print it alleging that they feared, if they did so, that the "clubs" would destroy their property and murder them. We extract portions of the confession, suppressing the names of parties for obvious reasons:

CONFESSION OF MARION CROP.

Question by me: Who killed Officer Rigdon?

He wrote: I did it, it was me that fired the pistol.

Who fired the pistol?

Me.

Is Corrie innocent or guilty?

He is as guilty as I am.

Are you sorry for killing Rigdon?

I am very sorry and unhappy on that account.

Have you seen Corrie lately?

Yes; and he is very cunning, and wants me to say he is innocent; but I won't do it, I won't tell a lie—he was with me.

Who planned the murder?

It was settled by us. What is done can't be helped.

Do you think the Governor will pardon you?

I don't expect it. He then added, some want me to die because I know their secrets.

Who are they?

——is one; he says I ought to be hanged; but he is ungrateful; he has done nothing to save me.

What! do you mean the present ——, —— ——?

Yes; he is a bad man. I and the boys have done much to place him in office, and in my troubles he turns from me. He is possessed of power to save me. If he would see Governor Hicks, I would be saved.

Do you really know him?

I do; and can tell you that he gave money to ——, who hates the Democrats, to buy pistols to kill any one who [illegible]

Do you believe all this?

Yes, I do, as I believe there is a God.

After I had read all the answers to my questions, particularly concerning the ——, a man whom I long respected, I became alarmed, and read with him, and, after prayers, took my leave; before I was able to do so, he, Crop, wrote, "Don't talk any while I live, or I will be very angry, and the clubs will get at it, and you will be killed, because you will find many of our clubs all about every where." I then left him, he making a sign with his hand that I would be killed either with the pistol or knife.

March the 15th—To-day at 11 o'clock, A. M., upon entering his cell, he told me his father was gone to the Governor, or about going. There was an old methodist minister with him, who, soon after I entered, took his leave. I then sat near him and questioned in writing.

Q Who is the head of all this sad affair?

A One —— ——, who keeps a tavern on Holiday street, near Fayette. He is a constable, and a friend of —— ——.

Q How do you know he is a bad man?

A Sir, he ought to be hanged; he has killed and caused to be murdered, a half dozen men.

Q For what cause?

A Because they wouldn't vote his ticket.—He has killed several—I can swear to it.

Q Will you name one?

A I will not name more than one. His name was Archibald McAleese, a Democrat, a native.

Q Are you sure, or did you hear so?

A I can prove it. I loaded the horse pistol for the purpose.

Q When, and with what did you load it?

A —— hated McAleese, and we agreed to kill him. I loaded the horse pistol with eight balls of this size, (he marked with his pencil,) and at one o'clock at night I saw —— fire at McAleese through a window. He, ——, pretended that the poor man was forcing his way through. The shots took effect in Mac's forehead.

Q Did —— tell you for what purpose you loaded the pistol?

A Yes, it was settled upon by us. I was the only one present. He and the —— are friends, and think by hanging me their secrets will die, but God will pay them.

Q How will I know ——?

A You must not ask one word about him, for if he gets it he will be suspicious, and will kill you. He then turned his chin, and pointed out a scar, telling me to notice it, as I would see a larger one near ——'s mouth.

I have since found the scar to be correct, having had an opportunity of seeing Mr.——.

Q Do you think —— knows for what—— —— killed McAleese.

A I am sure of it; nothing happens among the boys but he gets it the next morning. If you speak ill of ——, look out.

Q Are you not afraid of the oaths of the Clubs?

A Don't talk about their oaths; they have done nothing for me. I am sorry I ever knew any of them.

Q Have the policemen who swore against you belonged to any of the clubs?

A Yes, many of them; some have signed my petition to the Governor.

Q Is Corrie a Rip Rap?

A No, sir, he is a Plug Ugly, and so is Gambrill.

Q What do you profess to be?

A I may be set down as a Rip Rap.

Q How long have you followed those clubs?

A For years. I am sorry for it. But I can be hanged and no more.

Q What is the number of men attending at the clubs?

A About fifty or sixty at each.

Q How do they get their living?

A Not more than one third are regularly employed, they game, and live as they can.—Some have families who support them.

Q Have you been concerned in any other murder besides those of Rigdon and McAleese?

A I have been; but must not tell you any more; no good can be done to me. My father tells me to tell no one anything, to confess to God.

Q How would —— murder me should he know you have told me so much?

A He is a great coward, and would not come before your face to kill you, but when your back is turned, men of the club would get together, and as you pass one would fire over another's sholders. They would bind themselves by oaths of their clubs. They are awful men, and don't care about man or God. They care nothing about being hanged.

THE BLACK MAN IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The Boston Courier, in lecturing Carl Shurz, the Wisconsin German Republican, who went to Boston to set the Yankee Republicans right on political questions, thus enumerates the privileges of the negro in the State of Massachusetts:

"Here the colored man votes; here colored children and white children go to the same school; here the races are allowed to intermarry, and, as we have seen, they do not fail to avail themselves of their privilege. And there is nothing in the laws of the State to prevent a colored man's serving on a jury, if the subordinate functionaries on whom the duty of selecting jurymen is devolved choose to put him there. The black man here, stands on perfect equality with the white man, except that he cannot serve in the militia; and for this the United States are responsible, and not the State."

The white man, if he be born in a foreign land, if Republicanism can have its way, cannot vote for two years after he is declared to be a citizen; he cannot serve on the jury, but if his adopted country demands his help, he must shoulder his musket the day he is naturalized, and peril his life and shed his blood in her defence.—Cleveland Democrat.

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—The Hon. Clement [illegible] and Hon. Clement L. Vallandingham, Secretary of the Democratic National Executive Committee, have, by virtue of the power given them in the premises, concluded to call a meeting of the Committee about the 7th of December next, formal notice of which will be published in October. This Committee will fix the time for assembling of the Democratic National Convention, at Charleston, which will probably be toward the close of April or early in May, 1860.

The members of the Executive Committee are the same as those appointed by the Cincinnati Convention, a member for each State. It will be reccommended to the Democracy of the States admitted into the Union since 1856, to appoint members of the Executive Committee.

It may be mentioned that the meeting of Messrs. Smalley and Vallandingham in Washington, which took place on Wednesday last, was accidental, and they agreed after a brief personal interview, on what they had purpused to effect by correspondence.

This is the first official movement on behalf of the Executive Committee since the adjournment of the Cincinnati Convention.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.

The Gubernatorial canvass in Virginia, now about coming to a close, has been violent and bitter. Mr. Letcher, the Democratic candidate, like all men of marked individuality, has a number of personal enemies who stop at nothing that may tend to secure his defeat.—On the other hand, Mr. Goggin, the Opposition candidate, is also warmly opposed on personal grounds. In such a contest, however, the Opposition, owing to their unscrupulousness, are generally the gainers. The chivalric democracy of the Old Dominion, magnanimously refuse to take any other advantage than principles, gives them over their opponents.—Not so with the opposition. No trick so mean, no falsehood so atrocious, but they at once resort to it, if in their estimation it will damage the prospects of the Democratic candidate. From such premises as these, one would naturally conclude that the Democracy of Virginia will be defeated. But we have an abiding faith in the intelligence and cool-headed-ness of the Virginia people, and, therefore, have no fears for the result.—The strength of the Opposition candidate, lies in the fact that he is a slave-holder and in all his speeches arrogates to himself the championship of the "peculiar institution." Hence his election would be, if possible, a severer rebuff to the Black Republicans, than even the success of his Democratic opponent. More than this, it would be the certain ruin of the Black Republican party, inasmuch as it would place Crittenden and Bell in a position to dictate terms to them in the coming contest for the Presidency. Should Goggin be elected, Seward and Weed and Greely and the rest of the Black Republican leaders, will be compelled to play second fiddle to the Southern Know-Nothings, or set up independently for themselves, as they did in 1856. In either event, the defeat of their party would be inevitable. So, should the Opposition carry Virginia, the Democracy will not lose a single pawn on the Presidential chess-board, by the victory of their opponents.

BOOK BINDING.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of MR. GEO. A. BROOKS, of Harrisburg, which will be found in our paper to-day. Mr. Brooks' work is always well done and his charges are very moderate. Those desiring anything in his line, will do well to give him a call.

☞Read the confession of Marion Crop, the Baltimore rowdy who was lately hung for the murder of Police Officer Rigdon, which we publish on the first page. He was one of the ringleaders of the clubs that roll up the Know Nothing majorities in Baltimore.

MANŒUVRES OF THE ABOLITIONISTS.

A new attempt is about being made to abolitionize Bedford county. Finding that the labors of their local politicians, are not sufficient to accomplish their ends, the Abolitionists of this county are summoning to their aid the assistance of the New York Tribune, which paper they are now scattering broadcast among the good citizens of this neighborhood. The spirit of conservatism, and the strong and unvarying attachment to the Union, which have always characterized our people, compel the Abolitionists to this last desperate resort. Now, we have no objection to their circulating the Tribune, or any other of their newspaper organs, so long as they do it like men, in the light of day, and not sneakingly and clandestinely as they have been doing in some parts of this county. We are for free discussion—"freedom of thought and opinion" is our motto, and we shall never deny it, or prove false to it. Democracy never appears more beautiful than in the broad sunlight of Truth. Its principles need no "dark lantern" to give them a seeming of correctness. But whilst we are the advocates of a free press, we are decidedly opposed to all secret appliances of its power—to all clandestine operations on the part of those circulating its issues—for if these things be done, there is no freedom of discussion, the opportunity not being given to combat the doctrines of the sheet secretly circulated. It is but a new version of the trickery of Know-Nothingism, to insinuate into the hands of an unsuspecting citizen, a partizan newspaper filled with specious falsehoods which he may never see contradicted unless he subscribe to some other partizan journal of opposite politics.

We are informed that in Napier and Juniata townships, the Abolitionists are making it a regular business to supply Democrats gratis with copies of the New York Tribune. We have no doubt that such is the case in other parts of the county. Their object in doing this, is apparent. The New York Tribune is full of sugar coated lies and they think to deceive the people by spreading them before them. But they reckon without their host. The sturdy yeomanry of Bedford county, are too intelligent, and what is more, they are too patriotic, ever to be misled by Abolition fanatics, or Know Nothing wire-pullers. We say, therefore, let the Tribune be read by all who receive it. Scan its pages carefully. Note its disunion tendencies and its proclivity toward "negro equality." Remember, too, when you read it, that its editor, Horace Greeley, has been the advocate of Fourierism, of Free Love, of Abolitionism and of almost every disgraceful ism that has sprung up to degrade and demoralize society for the last twenty years. He is the same Greeley who but recently stigmatised laboring men as "POOR WHITE TRASH," "exceedingly tenacious of a distinction which enables them to take rank of the most accomplished and wealthy MEN OF COLOR!"

OPPOSITION HARMONICS.

In our last issue we made a brief allusion to the harmony of that redoubtable organization, the "Opposition" party in Pennsylvania. Since then we have had some additional evidence of the discordant feeling existing among the factions of which that party (?) is composed and it now seems almost certain that the co-alition which was last year entered into by those factions, will soon be disrupted into various distinct and separate organizations. We do not pretend to predict when this disruption will occur, but (unless the "cohesive power of public plunder" prove stronger than their love of principle) the Black Republican and Know Nothing parties will ere long be as irreconcilably inimical to each other as they now severally are to their mutual opponent, the National Democracy. There is a strong leaven of old Silver Gray Whiggery in the Opposition loaf, and that leaven has always been disgusting to the taste of the Seward-ites. The latter have the power to reject this dose so nauseous to their appetite, and it is evident that they intend to do it at the first opportunity. Silver Gray-ism is aware of the intentions of the Seward-ites, and is busily preparing to meet them half-way. It calls a "Straight American" State Convention, to which delegates are elected from a number of counties in various sections of the State. It publicly announces its purpose to re-organize the American party. It elects "Straight American" delegates to the "Opposition" Convention which is to meet in June, and quarrels with the "Woolly Heads" wherever they dare to assert the doctrines peculiar to their creed. Hence there is a prospect of a very pretty row between the two wings of the Opposition, and if they don't have a nice little war among themselves, it will not be because they love each other too much, but because neither of them has the courage to tell the other what it thinks of its opponent.

The Philadelphia Daily News, ere while the organ of the "Straight Americans" of this State, but lately in partnership with the Black Republicans, has the following editorial on the American State Convention:

"The following call for an American State Convention, has been issued from Pittsburg, and has its origin with the Americans of the county of Allegheny:

At a mass Meeting of the Americans of Allegheny county, held at Pittsburg on Tuesday, April 26th, 1859, it was unanimously resolved that we, the Americans of Allegheny county, in Mass Convention assembled, earnestly request the Americans throughout the State of Pennsylvania, to meet in their respective counties and elect delegates, equal in number to their representatives in the State Legislature, to meet in their respective counties and elect delegates, equal in number to their representatives in the State Legislature, to meet in State Convention, at Harrisburg, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, on Wednesday, the 25th day of May, 1859, at 10 o'clock A. M., to take action in regard to the reorganization of the American party.

By order of the Committee.

Pittsburg, April 25th, 1859.

We are not advised of the design in view by those who have issued this call, but we take it for granted that the purpose is to protect that American sentiment which is so necessary to the well-being of our beloved country. We notice that delegates have already been chosen from the counties of Allegheny, Westmoreland, Armstrong, Washington, Green, Butler, Lawrence, Dauphin, and Cumberland—and that measures are being adopted to elect delegates from most of the other counties in the State, our own included. We doubt not but those who may attend this Convention will so act as to produce results which shall be conducive to the success of those conservative principles upon which the institutions of our country are based, and to promote that American sentiment of nationality which inspired our fathers, and for the establishment of which the American party was formed."

It will be seen from the News, article that the "American" contagion has spread considerably, and that it has taken hold in some of the strongest Opposition districts in the State. We close our reflections upon this melancholy subject, by subjoining the telegraphic account of the proceedings of the "People's" Convention in Montgomery county. Truly our opponents are in a sorry plight.

NORRISTOWN, May 18.—The County Convention held here by the People's party has resulted in the selection of two sets of delegates to the State Convention to be held at Harrisburg. The split occurred between the Republican and Know-nothing members.

The Republican delegates selected are Robert Iredell, Caleb P. Jones, George Kenderdine, and William Mintzer; and the Know-nothing delegates are W. P. Seymour, John Walton, James Rittenhouse, and Henry S. Hitner.

The seats of the Know Nothing delegates will be contested in the State Convention. The large body of opposition voters in the county did not participate in the election.

"MONSIEUR TONSON COME AGAIN."

The redoubtable editor of the Blair County Whig, publishes a second article in defence of the dirty trick at which we caught him a few weeks ago. His former effort to extricate himself from his ugly predicament, was a weak and flimsy affair, but, ye gods! what a miserable abortion is his last! Not a line—not a word—does he dare to write concerning the real matter at issue between himself and the Gazette. All that he ventures upon, is the hackneyed, threadbare abuse of the National Administration, which has been in the mouth of every fledgling Opposition demagogue, for the last year and a half. What in the name of all that is logical, has the National Administration to do with the importation of seed-wheat? Could MR. BUCHANAN prevent such importation, if he desired to do so? Why, if the Government were to lay an embargo such as the Whig seems to think it should, every Opposition dog,—mongrel, puppy, whelp and hound—would yelp till the crack of doom, about the tyranny and despotism of our National rulers. The Whig man says he makes "political capital out of the wheat, &c., &c. "All right," say we, but you must be rather unsuccessful in that branch of business, MR. WHIG, or you would't try to make "political capital" out of the importation of a few thousand bushels of seed-wheat. Just think of it! "The ruinous policy of James Buchanan's administration," bringing a new kind of wheat into this country, and that too, for the special benefit of the grain-grower! Horrible to tell!

The Whig admonishes us very kindly to "quit deceiving the people by false publications," &c., &c. This is the cry of "STOP THIEF,"—the would-be cunning out-cry of every thief caught in a tight place. The editor of the Whig had better pull the beam out of his own eye, before he talks about the mote in his brother's. We have never yet, knowingly or wilfully, published any false statement in our paper, and we defy the Whig man or any other person, to show that we have done so. "Truth is mighty and must prevail!"

THE RAILROAD LETTING.

The much talked of "Railroad Letting" came off, in this place, on Wednesday last. The bidding for contracts was very lively, some fifty or sixty contractors being in attendance. The contract for the whole of the road let (12 miles) was given to COLLINS, DULL & Co., at the sum of $64,000. The work is to be commenced on the 4th day of June, and to be finished by the first of January. Among other distinguished contractors present at the letting, we noticed MAJ. JAMISON, of Westmoreland county, MR. BLAIR, of Wayne, MR. WILSON, of Centre, and MR. GOWAN, of Harrisburg. The presence of these "rail-roaders" enlivened our town considerably and already we see the "coming" railroad "casting its shadow before."

Trees! Trees! Trees!

Messrs. Cowles & Warren, proprietors of the "Highland Nurseries," at Syracuse New York, have furnished us with their catalogue of Fruit and Ornamental Trees and Plants, and desire us to state that their agents are about to canvass this county. Their trees are said to be of the choicest varieties, consisting of Apple, Pear, Cherry, Plum, Apricot, Nectarine, Peach, Quince and the various species of Ornamental Trees. Their Plants are unsurpassed such as Grapes, Currants, Goose-Berries, Rasp-berries, Black-bereies, Straw-berries, &c., &c. They have also Flowring Shrubs, Climbers, Bulbous Flower Roots, etc., etc. Their agents for Bedford county, Messrs. Cory, Neff, Kasaad and Speaker, may at present be found at Hafer's Hotel. Give them a trial.

LATEST YET.—J. Alsip, Esq., has returned from N. York, and Philadelphia, and says his selection of goods can't be excelled for beauty or quality, and that he intends selling them at an astonishing low figure. Go and examine.

THE MORNING PENNSYLVANIAN.—We neglected, last week, to notice the gratifying fact that HON. NIMROD STRICKLAND, late Canal Commissioner, has become the editor of the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian. Judge Strickland wields an able pen, and his character as a man and a Democrat, is unblemished. Under his editorship, the old Pennsylvanian is bound to succeed.

☞The Philadelphia Argus, published by Jo. SEVERNS & Co., has been re-changed to an evening paper and enlarged to the general size of the Philadelphia dailies. The Argus has always been a reliable Democratic journal and as a newspaper is unsurpassed. Success to the "Evening Argus!"

☞This week we paid a "flying visit" to the Springs, and found everything about the buildings presenting quite an agreeable and inviting appearance. We, also, visited the garden belonging to the Springs, which is under the care of Mr. John Fleming, and judging from the large quantity of all kinds of vegetables there, (which are now ready for table use, as we have reason to know,) the Company were certainly fortunate in procuring a gardener in the person of Mr. Fleming.

St. Johns, N. B., May 20.

The steamship City of Baltimore passed off Cape Race yesterday morning, and was intercepted by the news yacht of the Associated Press, by which means the dispatches prepared by the Liverpool agent were obtained. The dates are from London and Liverpool, to Wednesday afternoon, the 11th instant, being five days later.

There had been no material change in political affairs, and the condition of matters in Italy remained as they were when the Canada sailed.

The latest intelligence from the seat of war received at London on the day the City of Baltimore sailed, states that there had been no action of moment between the hostile armies. The movements of the Austrians are viewed as inexplicable by the London press, and their conjectures are variable. Some can only account for their dilatory movements by the supposition that the unfavorable weather has prevented the General-in-Chief from carrying out the original plan of the campaign.

Their latest movements indicate the greatest indecision, positions being taken and then abandoned without any apparent motive. Up to the last accounts heavy rains continued to fall, carrying out the designs of the Sardinians to overflow the country and thereby distract the movements of the Austrians.

A Vienna bulletin says that the Austrian troops are awaiting better weather before assuming the offensive.

The Sardinian commander, Gen. Marmora, has made the river his strategetical line.

The Emperor and Prince Napoleon left Paris for Genoa on the 10th. The Empress Eugenie was proclaimed Regent during the absence of the Emperor, according to the previous arrangement. The Emperor will assume the command of the allied forces in Sardinia.—The Sardinian Government are preparing a magnificent reception for Napoleon on his arrival at Genoa.

Marshal Canrobert, the French General, is directing the operations of the allies from Alessandria.

There is said to be much sickness among the Austrian troops, as was expected from the bad weather and the overflowing condition of the country to which their movements have so far been confined.

The Austrians are fortifying their positions along the line of the river Sesia. The Emperor is making constant additions to his reserve, and there will soon be 750,000 men under arms.

The Emperor had declared Ancona, on the Adriatic, in a state of siege, but the Pope protested and a reconsideration of the matter was promised.

The French army at Rome is to be increased, and placed on a war footing.

The English Parliamentary elections had been almost concluded. The Ministerial gain was variously estimated by the English press at from 19 to 28 members.

The Paris Moniteur denies the report that the French army is about to concentrate on the Rhine.

THE LATEST MOVEMENTS OF THE AUSTRIANS.

TURIN, May 11.—The Austrians are recrossing the river Sesia in haste.

MARSEILLES, Wednesday evening.—The Emperor arrived here at midday en route. He embarked on board the Hortense, where he received the city authorities and left in the afternoon.

It was said in Paris that the Emperor expects to be at Milan by the end of May or beginning of June.

LONDON, Thursday.—In the London Times it is said that the continued suspense between the hostile forces in Italy, excites daily, now conjectures.

The condition of Turkey has also been a subject of comment.

Marshal Canrobert has issued orders of the day to the troops under his command at Alessandria, concluding in a spirited and warlike tone.

A despatch from Rome has been sent to the Pope's Nuncio to leave Florence.

The Austrian war brig Triton had been accidentally blown up while the commander of the vessel was in shore. The number of dead, wounded and missing was estimated at abont eighty.

Another report says that part of the crew were ashore when the explosion took place, and the number killed was only four.

TURIN, May 11, 10 o'clock, A. M.—On reaching Vercetti the Austrians ceased their retrograde movements. To-day they made an excursion towards Porsara. Yesterday two batteries and thiry carts, with sick and wounded, passed through Gravellona.

Count Cavour leaves to-day to meet the Emperor Napoleon at Genoa.

PARIS, May 12.—The Moniteur publishes the following telegram:

ROME, May 10.—According to orders from Vienna, the state of siege has been raised at Ancona, and the light-house is again lit.

VIENNA, May 20.—The Archduke is dead.

LIVERPOOL BREADSTUFF MARKET.—The circulars quote a considerable decline on all qualities of breadstuffs. Messrs. Richardson, Spence & Co., report flour very dull at 11a14s 6d.—Wheat, also, very dull and declined 6a9d.

LIVERPOOL PROVISION MARKET.—The provision market closed quiet. Beef dull; sales unimportant. Bacon steady. Lard firm at 60a62s.

LONDON MARKETS.—Wheat has a declining tendency; all qualities are 6s lower. Sugar is dull and 6d lower. Rice firm. Tallow quiet at 56s. Spirits of Turpentine firm at 44s 6da45s 6d.

A Dead Failure.

An attempt to build up a new Democratic party under the dignified title of the "States Rights Democracy," with Forney as leader, has proven the most dismal political failure of the times. It would really be a work of charity, says the Patriot and Union, for some respectable Democratic paper to bestow a word of encouragement upon the ragged, bald, and crippled thing. The Anti-Lecompton press of the State refuses to acknowledge it, instead of giving the encouragement and support which were anticipated by the projectors of the movement, are unsparing in their blows. Of this class of Democratic newspapers, the Somerset Democrat is among the most able and vigorous. In commenting with deserved severity upon the proceedings at Altoona, it administers the following advice to the understand that it is the intention of this State Rights Democratic party, when the proper time arrives, to make an energetic effort to secure a majority of delegates to the next 4th of March Convention. To this we have no objection. But we tell them now, in advance, that unless they roll up their sleeves and go zealously to work for the success of the regularly nominated Democratic State Ticket at the next election, they will find themselves nowhere when these delegates come to be chosen. No disorganizing movement can carry the Anti-Lecompton sentiment of the State with it, and the sooner the leaders of this Democratic State Rights faction are made aware of this fact perhaps the better. There is a vast difference between a genuine Anti-Lecompton Democrat, and a bogus one who makes it his business to endeavor to defeat the regular party organization, and who gives "aid and comfort" to the common enemy."

GONQUA MATTINGS.—We have just received a large lot of prime quality Mattings 1 & 1¼ check and plain white.

GENTS:—I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the 4th instant, about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods were destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers which were in one of your Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the sale which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched.

Yours truly,

☞KEEP OUT OF HARM'S WAY.—This is good advice to all persons, at any time; but especially at a season of the year when coughs and colds harass the system and which frequently lay the foundation of permanent disease of the lungs or some of the organs connected with respiration. To all afflicted in that way an early resort to the proper medicine will at once arrest the malady and hinder the development of an incurable disease. DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP made by him at his medicine store, 140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., is such a medicine, and if it were resorted to at the commencement of a cough or influenza, there would be fewer deaths from pulmonary consumption.

Sold at Dr. Harry's Drug and Book Store, Bedford, and at Colvin's, Schellsburg.

Fits! Fits! Fits!

Persons laboring under this distressing malady will find Dr. HANCK'S Epileptic Pills to be the only remedy ever discovered for curing Epilepsy or Falling Fits. These Pills possess a specific action on the nervous system; and although prepared especially for the purpose of curing fits; they will be found of especial benefit to all persons afflicted with weak nerves, or whose nervous system has been prostrated or shattered from any cause whatever. The dyspeptic patient, whose stomach has lost the power of duly converting food into a life sustaining element, is relieved by a single course of these extraordinary Pills. The gastric fluid re-acquires its solvent power and the crude nutriment which was a load and a burden to the sufferer, while his digestive organization was paralized and unstrung, becomes under the wholesome revolution created in the system, the basis of strength, activity, and health.

WORMS! WORMS!!

☞A great many learned treatises have been written, explaining the origin of, and classifying the worms generated in the human system. Scarcely any topic of medical science has elicited more acute observation and profound research; and yet physicians are very much divided in opinion on the subject. It must be admitted, however, that, after all a mode of expelling these worms, and purifying the blood from their presence, is of more value than the wisest disquisitions as to the origin. The expelling agent has at length been found—Dr. McLane's Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros. is the much sought after specific, and has already superseded all other worm medicines, its efficacy being universally acknowledged by medical practitioners.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of Pittsburgh, Pa.—All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. PHILIP RICHEY,
April 1, '59. Administrator.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated

Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

FEVER AND AGUE,

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS. Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros. will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros. Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve thousand cents postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen thousand cents stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

For sale at the Drug Stores of Drs. Reamer & Harry, Bedford, and all other Druggists in the county.

While Insects crawl
Thro' chamber and hall,
In squads without number.

THE SALAMANDER SAFES OF PHILADELPHIA AGAINST THE WORLD.

Evans & Watson

Have had the surest demonstration in the following certificate that their manufacture of Salamander Safes has at length fully warranted the representations which have been made of them as rendering an undoubted security against the terrific element:

Philadelphia, April 12th, 1856.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON,—Gentlemen,—It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owing to the very protective qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our jewelry, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the calamitous fire in Ranstead Place, on the morning of the 11th instant.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning ruins, where the vast concentration of heat caused the brass plates to melt, we cannot but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to men of business as a sure reliance against fire.

DRS. FITCH & SIKES, would state that their treatment of Consumption is based upon the fact that the disease exists in the blood and system at large, both before and during its development in the lungs, and they therefore employ Mechanical, Hygienic and Medecinal Inhalations, which they value highly, but only as Palliatives, (having no Curative effect when used alone,) and Invalids are earnestly cautioned against wasting the precious time of curability on any treatment based upon the plausible, but false idea that the "seat of the disease can be reached in a direct manner by Inhalation," for as before stated, the seat of the disease is in the blood and its effects only in the lungs.*

Nycum's Improved

CAST-IRON CARRIAGE HUB.

THE undersigned believes that he has invented a cast iron carriage hub which far excels all others now in use, for strength, neatness and durability, and that it only needs to be examined, and its merits tested; to secure its universal approval and adoption. Indeed it is no longer an experiment, it having been effectually tried by the best judges in our country, and pronounced one of the Greatest Improvements of the Age !

Several vehicles have been in use over two years with the Improved Hub attached, and the wheels are still as perfect as when they left the shop, the unavoidable wear excepted.

This is the only Cast Iron Hub ever invented suitable for light wheels.

This improvement is of such a nature that one or more spokes may be taken out changed or replaced without disturbing the other portion of the wheel. Where a wood hub is used, if a spoke happens to become, broken, it is necessary to cut the tire and separate the felloes, to get at the damaged part. The wheel must be then recomposed, the tire rewelded and reset. All this involves a considerable expense and loss of time.

In the present improvement the inner ends of the spokes are secured in an Iron Hub, which consists mainly of two shells fastened together with screws. By simply unscrewing the nuts and taking off the back shell, any one of the spokes may be removed or changed, and the hub again put together, leaving the wheel as solid and firm as ever, all

WITHIN THE SPACE OF A FEW MINUTES.

This method of constructing Iron Hub Wheels gives them unusual strength,

LIGHTNESS AND NEATNESS

besides obviating several other objections that have heretofore attended their use. The cost of manufacture is also greatly reduced.

The subscriber Agent for Bedford County, will dispose of Township and shop rights on reasonable terms. WILLIAM O'NEAL, Agent.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It, is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints : —

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
